ROMAN HOLIDAY

Our time in Rome was short and sweet. We decided to go on a Scooteroma tour to try and pack in as much as we can see during our stay. I saw them in Travel & Leisure and thought let's give them a whirl! I was leaning towards doing a scooter tour but we chose to go with their Ape Calessino tour instead since there were three of us. A major plus with the Ape Calessino is that you don't want to have to deal with helmet hair (for the ladies out there!). We went everywhere on the tiny three wheel vehicle. Including the areas that cannot be reached on foot. And let me tell you, there's lots of history outside of the Roman center, too! We were picked up at our hotel and taken on an adventure of a lifetime. Those four hours were utter bliss.

THE ETERNAL CITY

This was our first time in Rome and it could not have been any better! We most likely would not have been able to do all the things we did if it wasn't for our own personal guide. He knew everything about Rome and more. Have you ever gone with a tour group and had to wiggle and fight yourself through the pack to try and even get near the guide to hear what he/she is saying? Well, I have. None of that existed that day. I was in earshot of everything he had to say and he even had an ipad to show visuals of what the structures looked like in the past for comparison! I'm so glad that we chose to go with Scooteroma tour as it was just what we needed for our tightly packed trip in Europe.
